The Federal High Risk Pool is available to persons who:

- Are citizens or nationals of the United States of America, or legally present in the U.S.
- Are and continue to be residents of the State of New Mexico
- Have not had health insurance coverage for the six months prior to applying for the Federal High Risk Pool
- Have a pre-existing condition and have received one of the following:
 - A notice of rejection for comprehensive major medical coverage, or
 - A note or letter from a physician stating that you have been specifically diagnosed with one of the qualifying medical or health conditions, or
 - A notice of health insurance being available ONLY with a rider, waiver or restrictive provision, stating that you will not be covered for a current or past condition for which you have been diagnosed, or
 - Proof that you would be offered insurance only for a premium that is above 125% of the New Mexico Standard Risk Rate for similar deductible options, or
- There are no family rates. Each family member who is enrolled will be charged the rate applicable to his/her age
- The following persons may be covered under a family policy if there are three or more family members who individually satisfy eligibility criteria (as explained above). The following are considered to be family members:
 - A spouse
 - Unmarried dependent children until age 26
 - The age limit does not apply when the eligible dependent child is incapable of self-support employment by reason of mental retardation or physical disability and is primarily dependent upon the policyholder for support and maintenance

The deductible for a family will be twice the deductible for the primary enrollee, no matter how many family members are enrolled.

IMPORTANT: Coverage is not available to persons who are eligible for or covered by Medicare, Medicaid or any another health plan.

Renewal and Termination

Eligibility is verified annually.

Coverage is terminated under certain circumstances:

- When you are no longer a New Mexico resident
- When you become eligible for coverage under any other health insurance or health plan
- If you do not reply to an inquiry about your continued eligibility within 30 days
- If you fail to pay the premium on the due date or within the 30-day grace period

If your coverage is terminated, you will not be eligible to reapply for 6 months from the termination date. In addition, you will be placed at the end of any waiting list in force at the time of re-application.
